

The Sun – Our Star

Note-taking Guide - Answer Key

29, gases, largest, star, hydrogen

The Sun is a star!

Stars, like our Sun, are giant balls of hot gases that produce both light and heat. They are mostly made of hydrogen and helium.

By Earth measurements, the Sun weighs 44 followed by 29 zeros pounds!

Our Sun is the largest object in our solar system.